A Season of Birth

There is reason to mourn what is dying, but far more reason to celebrate what is being born. The divine-human being is breaking free of the chains of matter and entering an age of spiritual light.

The planetary life-wave is ascending to a realm where the love and wisdom, the grace, beauty, and light of the divine human Soul will create an enlightened civilization.

We urge you to leave the world of the dying and enter the world of the living. Behind the chaos and lawlessness of these times, a new order is being born within the human soul. In the coming evolutionary cycle, the world will be infused with light of many kinds: the light of understanding and wisdom, the light of beauty and truth, the light of meaning and purpose, the light of compassion and love.

The expanding light of the soul will evoke the light of the Great Ones who passed through the stages of human evolution and currently dwell on higher planes. Many of the Great Ones will be actively involved with human beings in bringing 'heaven and earth' into closer proximity and co-creating the new world.

All is leading to the gates of ‘the new Jerusalem’ where God will re-enter human awareness and holiness will be restored to life on Earth.

Just as one cannot pry open a rose before its time without destroying the petals, a human soul cannot be forced to awaken before the ripeness of time.

Moments of readiness will occur with growing frequency as the new wave of etheric light engulfs the planet.

The planetary Logos, the Lord of Earth, is giving birth to kingdoms of life on a more subtle dimension. The evolution of consciousness will unfold on the etheric plane. This is not a 'heaven,' but a dimension where hindrances to the life of spirit are fewer.

When shades of gray turn into blackness, the smallest point of light will look like a star. In this dying world, there are those who see only darkness, and there are those who recognize the stars. They are the ones who are on their way into the age of light.

You are leaving the realm of matter, the place of the soul's unfolding and entering a plane where Spirit will come to maturity. Under the guidance of spiritual Elders, humanity will bring about a civilization of enlightened souls pooling their limitless energies to co-create a new world.

Everything now occurring is in alignment with the plan of evolution. The Soul is already bringing to light the limits of material consciousness.

The best use of these times is to go within and tap the cosmic currents pouring abundantly into the Earth. As you do so, their spiritual gift-waves will become more available.

Hidden inside the power to reason and think abstractly, which led to the Age of Enlightenment and the birth of modern science and technology, is the human potential to express divinity that is about to bring even more radical change.

The future can be glimpsed in the following statements:

All is energy, light is a form of energy, all living beings have a body of light as does the Earth. Many understand that an age is ending but do not comprehend that the new age will unfold on higher ground.

After eons of incarnation in physical matter, only a few human beings can yet sense the reality of a 'city of light' -- a higher world where the light inherent in life will be made visible.

The entire course of human evolution has been leading to the moment when the awakened Soul would find the way into the 'promised land.'

The soul possesses nothing but the fruits of experience (both positive and negative). It owns only hard-won accumulations of love and wisdom, higher intelligence, and spiritual will. . .

The growth of human consciousness toward the Light of Spirit will evoke the presence of higher Beings.

When you see that all forms are vortices of energy held together by consciousness, the fallacy that has imprisoned humanity from the start of this world cycle will be revealed.

The perennial dream is based on an age whose embers have remained aglow in the deepest recesses of the soul, awaiting the day of resurrection.

Two thousand years ago, the disciple John of Patmos gave it voice, evoking the return of God at the end of the age and the creation of a new world.
