Sharing Responsibility

“One of the requirements for acceptance into this Hierarchy of Light is the willingness to assume responsibility for the life that is our planet.

In the life of a human being, a preparatory experience is assuming responsibility for self and family, in a spirit of harmlessness, plus dedication to the common good as demonstrated through a life of service.

When the consciousness of the soul transcends the limitations of the human condition, a door opens to the spiritual realm. Upon entry into this realm, a vista of planetary dimensions appears. This becomes the new ground of shared responsibility.”
