

THE REALITY OF THE SOUL

The coming age has been called the 'Age of the Soul.' The way into this age is paved with the light of the soul, first, then with the love of the soul, and finally, once these qualities have become manifest, it is paved with awareness of and alignment with divine purpose. ~15 September 2018 ~

There comes a time in the life of an aspirant to higher truth when the personality surrenders to the Soul. When the things of this world no longer attract and a point of satiety is reached, worldly things are seen in the clear, cold light of reason and found wanting. The soul yearns for more and is impelled to discover 'life more abundant.'

Then come the difficult choices that are thrust onto the path of aspirants to higher truth. These choices stubbornly persist until the stage of the Path when the soul begins to influence the life. Until then, a rainbow of opportunities presents itself; choices appear at every turn, allowing the individual to freely choose the Higher Way. Before the soul takes control of the life, human identity is attached to all that ‘dies a natural death’—with the passing seasons of the planet’s year and the passing seasons of the human life. Until that shift occurs, the personality casts a shadow over the soul’s presence, insisting that it be seen and heard above all inner promptings.

Until now, humanity has lived in bondage to all that is ephemeral, including the physical body, which has become the repository of huge investments of energy for citizens of the modern world. Preserving the physical sheath is equated with preserving life. For those who believe only in the ‘proofs’ of modern science, clinging to the physical form is like clinging to a life-preserver. The rules and norms of ethical behavior have been bent and broken in a desperate attempt to prolong and elevate the life of flesh and bones, which will inescapably decay and die. Only the soul lives on, carrying forward its experience from the world of form. ~21 April 2019~

Once the soul awakens there is no going back, despite temporary retreats into the lure of comfortable and familiar patterns. Once the Light is seen and the Way is glimpsed, the temporary ‘fixes’ of the persona will never satisfy. Discovering and contacting the Source of the light becomes the driving force in the seeker’s life. It is the soul’s encounter with Light while in physical form that will, in due time, flood the new culture and its civilization and make of it a ‘Heaven on Earth.’ You know the old aphorism: ‘When the student is ready the teacher appears.’ When a soul is ready for the light of truth, it invariably appears. A growing portion of humanity is ready for greater light. ~11 October 2019~

The thinkers of the race are observing the common denominators of current human struggles and beginning to perceive them as ‘the human struggle.’ The weak are standing up to the strong, demanding justice for immense injustices buried beneath layers of enforced silence. This is the Soul, the true ‘sleeping giant,’ arising from its slumber, facing down the fears of the persona and emerging into the light of day.

The soul of humanity is becoming liberated from ancient personality restraints. Accumulations of light are bringing this about: particles of light amassed by the soul through eons of suffering are turning into waves of wisdom. The dots have not yet been connected in the mind of humanity as a whole, but as the world’s attention becomes focused on a few global flash-points, human patterns are being exposed. Accumulations of light are about to burst their banks and overflow into the world. ~11 October 2019~

One of the first visible signs of the soul’s emergence in a person’s life is involvement in service for the Good. The individual becomes sensitive to the world beyond his or her own immediate life, feels compassion for those who are suffering, and seeks to ameliorate conditions. Until this pivotal moment in the history of the race, such involvement has always been voluntary, a matter of individual choice or free will. At the present time, when so many aspects of life are under threat, those who are awakening are getting involved in activities for the Good as a matter of self-preservation, as well as helping others. This is occurring among thinking people who have achieved sufficient distance from the illusions of material living to take notice of the state of the larger world. The dangers facing all of humanity are reducing age-old barriers, and through this you see the workings of the Plan.

You have likely noticed that the ranks of groups devoted to the environment are swelling, along with groups devoted to the cause of justice, fairness, and freedom. And surely you have noticed that growing numbers of people, aware of the corruption destroying the nations of the world, are standing up to be counted. All of this has come about in response to the imminence of the threats to life, as it has always been known until now. ~ 25 October 2019 ~

As the incarnating soul enters the world of form, it generally finds little if anything to reinforce the qualities of the realm of the soul that it has left behind. The closest reinforcement is the loving embrace of the mother. The unbounded love that flows from mother to newborn child, in ideal conditions, is as close to an expression of divine love that exists at the present stage of human awareness. There is a quality in the flow of this love akin to the adoration of God in form. The mother gazes into the eyes of her child, seeing a miracle of new life, in the way a divine Being sees into the soul of a human being.

Let us now raise this imagery to a higher turn of the spiral and consider the birth of the conscious soul. At the point of awakening, it is we, the inner teachers and guides of humanity, who become the main nurturers. When the soul becomes conscious of itself, the great chain of Being is set in motion. The conscious soul is as a newborn 'juncture' between heaven and earth. Our arrows of light are directed to strengthen and solidify that joining point. Though it may take a lifetime or two before the soul consciously registers our presence, We stand and wait for that day while actively helping to prepare for it. Before then, Our presence can be sensed in various ways such as: synchronous events, blessings that arrive seemingly out of the blue, the sensed presence of spiritual love. We ever stand and wait and prepare. ~11 October 2019~

While the subtle realm of light and beauty is becoming more real for you, through our deepening relationship, it remains invisible to most of humanity. Nevertheless, visible demonstrations of brotherly love are growing, signaling the birth of the Soul through myriad initiatives, large and small. The heart of humanity is opening wider and acts of human kindness are proliferating, collectively drawing the World Teacher closer. The living reality of the indwelling soul is taking hold. ~13 December 2019~

For the first time in humanity's evolution, the higher Self is being recognized by more than the rare few individuals. The shift to soul identity leads eventually to the revelation that the consciousness endowing the form with life has a goal for any given lifetime. It is to bring the outer form into closer rapport with the life within, to the point where the Self recognizes it belongs to the One Self, and thus to all Selves and all of Life.

This truth has begun to seep into the ranks of advanced humanity and as it does, the rate of vibrational frequencies begins to rise. It is the frequency of the Soul that throws open the portal to the higher kingdom and allows the higher Light to pour into human living. This moves us into the science of light-waves, electric charges, frequencies, resonances, vibrations. These words are more than symbolic evocations of the higher worlds; they represent actual forces that govern life on subtler planes.

The soul on the Path comes into contact with subtler planes of Earth while still incarnate in physical form. The aspirant eventually discovers the reciprocal interaction known as invocation and evocation or call and response. It is often in desperation that the soul first cries out for aid and for guidance. The guidance that arrives is conveyed by means of attunement to higher frequencies, the result of cleansing the lesser self of its lower vibrations. This interaction initiates the living relationship between the 4th and 5th kingdoms of Earth. ~15 November 2019~

In these treacherous times for the world, it is wise to withdraw one's consciousness from the outer planes of life in the knowledge that this, too, will pass and what will endure is everything pertaining to the life of the Soul. Bear in mind always that the new age of Aquarius will be the age of the Soul, the era when the light of the Soul will break through the chaos and illumine the world. This is what awaits. You know this to be true in the depths of your souls. It is toward this lighted future that We are now working hand-in-hand with you.

If one erases all distinctions of a personality nature, and all categorizations related to stages of the Path, one arrives at a simple understanding of this moment for awakening humanity: the human Soul is yearning to break free of the prison-house of the persona and to experience the reality of spiritual Love. This occurs at the point where the soul infuses the outer persona and the two become entwined as one. ~26 July 2019~

In order to embody a higher truth, you must first comprehend its true dimensions. Then you must remove the gap between the ideal and the real by becoming one with the ideal. Let us take goodness as an illustration. Does goodness exist as an ideal apart from you? Or has its essence begun to permeate your conscious awareness? Have you assimilated this ideal to the extent that you are in process of becoming one with it? An ideal is realized by living inside of you as a goal that begins to shape your thoughts and actions, until you gradually achieve complete identification with it.

This is how the reality of the Soul begins to break through the consciousness of the personality to become your true and stable identity. Is the Soul, the true Self, still 'the other self' that you are hoping to become identified with one day? If so, We would like to turn your attention to a factor in the evolution of consciousness that bears reflection and deep self-exploration. It has to do with responsibility. The work of embodying the higher self requires a highly developed sense of responsibility. There is a subconscious fear of completing the shift in identity because of an intuitive understanding that greater self-sacrifice may be called for. The little self of the persona clamors for more comfort, more adventure and material success, while the Higher Self is crying: "Leave your father's house and follow me."

To leave your father's house at this moment is to step back from the fear circulating through the body of a human race standing at the edge of catastrophe. To 'follow me' is to become one with the Soul. It is to prepare to step firmly into the flow of evolution, along with those souls who are incarnate primarily to serve in this transition to a new era. Responding to this inner call signifies that the higher aspect of your being is ready to assume responsibility for other lives. The true Self, perceiving its oneness with all Selves, has been working toward this heightened responsibility for eons, all the while unbeknownst to the lesser self.

Once the internal marriage of the human and divine has taken place, the pain and suffering of living as an isolated persona comes to a natural end. Spiritual life, which We call 'real life,' only begins when the soul takes control of the outer persona and when its vehicles are dedicated to the purpose for which the soul has taken incarnation. Those who have achieved this inner alignment know the unparalleled joys that it brings. With it comes a steady downpour of the love and wisdom held in the great reservoir of the Center of All Love, the spiritual hierarchy of our planet. With access to this reservoir, and the awareness of becoming part of the Greater Group, life begins anew. The term 'spiritual rebirth' hints at this without conveying the true essence of the experience.

We do not suggest that all karmic challenges end for the soul who attains this state. However, karmic challenges no longer define the life or countermand the soul's ability to fulfill its higher purpose.

~15 November 2019~

This is the time to realize, beyond the shadow of a doubt, the fact that the soul is immortal. This is the time to live from that realization at every hour of every day.

Moreover, only by living from this higher state of consciousness can the essential work of the soul be brought to fruition. It is this subtle work behind the outer works of service you perform that will demonstrate to others, through speech and action, the predominance of the Soul in your lives. The greater the demonstration, the greater the influx of Light from Us—the Light of Wisdom and the Light of Love. ~27 September 2019~

To live in the world as a disciple of the spiritual Hierarchy on the cusp of the ‘Age of the Soul,’ is to have attained contact with your soul and to be on your way to achieving control of its personality, which then becomes the vehicle of the soul in the world. It is to experience the shift in the locus of individual identity from personality to soul. When this occurs, the individual becomes aware of being a living soul, with all that this implies.

As consciousness expands, the individual soul increasingly identifies with all souls and all living beings and seeks to contribute to the welfare of Earth’s life. When this drive grows strong enough to be perceived by members of the Hierarchy, contact is made. When the soul succeeds in gaining control of the three personality vehicles (physical, emotional, and mental), it also gains sensitivity to spiritual impression—the subtle means of communication utilized by Elders dwelling on the inner planes to reach sensitive human minds. ~1 November 2019~

In the West, the awakening soul is frequently identified as Christ consciousness. Yet it should be understood that this is only one name for the unit of consciousness that is the human soul. In certain Buddhist teachings, the soul is identified as the Buddha nature; in Hinduism it is Atma. In part, it is the universality of the growing awareness of the universal nature of the soul that has reinforced a withdrawal of focus from the Christ of the churches, managers, and public squares, and turned that focus toward the advent of the inner Self and what it signifies for the evolution of the human race. ~13 December 2019~

The forward thrust of evolution is elevating human awareness toward the plane of the Soul. On this plane, it is possible to weather the present global conditions with equanimity. This state can be most easily attained and sustained as a collective—a group of souls mutually committed to a spiritual task. ~13 February 2020~

To be alive in the world right now, to observe the further withering of the law with each new day, is to be tested to the core. When the soul looks outward upon the dying world there is no sign of aid forthcoming. The only place for the soul to look is inward and upward, where the Forces of Light are arrayed in preparation to re-enter the world. A steadfast inward gaze dispels all doubt, allowing the soul to function more effectively than ever before. The realization dawns that Light is already breaking through in the guise of every individual who stands steady in the Light of the Soul. This is Our point of re-entry into the New Earth. ~6 October 2017~

To assimilate what we are saying with a sense of right proportion, without illusion or distortion, try to listen through ‘the ears of the Soul’ — the liberated soul that has transcended the plane where glamour exists. ~17 December 2020~

It is the soul that gravitates naturally toward the light of the Future. It seeks expression in the subtle folds of the Mother of the World, who bestows Her grace upon all that is alive in the spirit of the New Earth. May each of you find your way into this state of grace, where doubt will perish, where Love will vanquish all that is not of Love, and where Light will eclipse all that is not of Light. ~21 April 2019~

The first initiation into spiritual life arises from the opening of the heart. There are countless millions of simple people of goodwill across the globe who have little knowledge in a worldly sense, but who are moved by a compassionate heart to care for others. This is interconnectedness at its most fundamental level: from heart to heart. The builders of the new world will be those who are gravitating toward the marriage of mind and heart. ~15 February 2021

This path is not for the faint of heart. It is for those still-rare human beings who are willing to sacrifice that which once brought comfort and satisfaction to the personality for that which will bring life more abundant to the human realm.

While pursuing this demanding path, it's important to hold at the forefront of your minds the ultimate divine purpose of the purifying fires through which humanity is passing at this time: to destroy illusory walls of separation that have defined the human experience until now, creating rounds of ceaseless suffering. In the realm of the Soul, there is no separation. ~16 July 2020~
