

THE ETHERIC PLANE

The ether, or etheric substance composing the etheric plane, could be thought of as a gas somewhat akin to the gases that currently form Earth's atmosphere like oxygen and carbon dioxide, but of a more refined and purified composition.

The atmosphere in which evolution will continue will be a vast field of energy as invisible as the air you now breathe. That is the closest we can come to describing the environment in which telepathic transmissions will flow from point to point in the web of life, and in which the soul will thrive.

The lightness of ether will pervade the whole of life. Inside of the vast expanse of etheric substance enfolding the earth a great and majestic human drama will unfold in consciousness and subtle form.

It is an occult fact that in any given epoch of history only a portion of the human race is incarnate. Even now, when the world population soars beyond any previous time in history, only a small percentage of the total number of souls drawn into the aura of Earth is incarnate physically. Moreover, among the many waves of souls who come into incarnation there are those who are more advanced and those who are less advanced.

What lies ahead in the future as the plan for the Aquarian Age unfolds will be a divinely inspired interplay between human souls of spiritual refinement, plus increasingly developed sensitivity to impression, and Beings more advanced in the hierarchy of light.

They are the ones who will be influential in establishing the foundations of each aspect of life in the new world—from education, of paramount importance as the breeding-ground for awareness of the higher purpose of life, to healing—the right alignment of each of the subtler bodies in the soul’s etheric sheath—to leadership, in which it will fall to the most enlightened souls to perceive the way forward in each department of life.

A large, glowing red planet or moon dominates the left side of the image, set against a dark, starry night sky. The planet's surface is textured with craters and appears to be emitting a soft, reddish glow. In the foreground, the dark silhouette of a tree stands on a grassy hill, looking towards the planet. The overall scene is surreal and evocative, suggesting a distant world or a celestial body.

As the consciousness of humanity-at-large matures, the entirety of life will be organised around the evolution of individuals and groups in the goal of fulfilling the purpose of God for which the whole of human evolution has been designed.

Breathtaking to behold, from Our vantage point, is the beauty and wonder awaiting the race in this next stage of unfoldment, as all the dreams and higher aspirations of humanity for a world of justice and decency, of right human relations, goodwill, peace and harmony, will finally be possible of attainment.

The love that has been awakened in the soul of humanity as this Piscean Age comes to an end, will flow freely through all departments of life in the new world. Doubts about the inherent unity of living beings will be put to rest as the nature of life on the etheric plane will reveal the existence of One Life in infinite forms of manifestation.
